

Colin B Bennett

---

From: "Chris Maile" <info@planningsanity.co.uk>
To: "Colin Bennett" <colinbennett@palmeira.org.uk>
Sent: 01 June 2005 15:51
Subject: Re: Fw: St James' Place Brighton FPS/Q1445/5/1

It can be a useful exercise to involve the media (legal or otherwise) from a PR view point, but they are unlikely to take the case up from a funding of a challenge aspect. Still there is nothing to lose by taking the matter forward that way.

Chris Maile

On Wednesday 01 June 2005 10:58, you wrote:

- > Dear all,
- > i thought you might like to know this.
- > I do realise that most of us have "given up" on an "appeal" visa via St.
- > James' Place. I have in mind the possibility of asking the legal or
- > planning correspondance of such newspapers as the Guradian, Indie or DT to
- > take an interest. I would not do this unless i had "consent" from you. i
- > am awaiting a substantive reply from Hazel McKay.
- > I am leaving for a conference in Finland very early tomorrow and will not
- > be back until late on 12 June. This gives little time - but enough, to do
- > something, if something is going to be done, before the 42 days appeal
- > period ends.
- > Best wishes
- > Colin