Dear All

I sent you this email on 01 June and I had replies from most of you.

In the event I did not feel able to make contact with those newspapers as I just could not evoke a response from Hazel McKay. I was hoping to base my approach on support from her bearing in mind that she is the past president

Town Planning Institute. Sadly, I just could not get any response from her, after her initial holding reply, despite many attempts.

When I return from holiday I will consider trying to gain interest in the wider planning world on this case as the consequences seem to be enormous.

Yours
