Dear Sir or Madam,

Your Ref. 40040/05

Colin Bennett v. United Kingdom

I now write substantively in response to your letter of 13 February 2006. I believe I acknowledge that letter either by letter or telephone on receipt of it.

I want to tell you what I have been doing in connection with this matter since February 2006. I have uploaded all the documents in this case onto my website. There are 113 documents and that task did take quite a few hours! I would like you to take note of the location of these documents. The address of the website is:

<http://palmeira.org.uk/sjpdossier/sjpindex.html>

It may not yet be the practice to provide documents to the ECHR by way of a website rather than by physical documents but perhaps this will become more common in future.

I remind you that I am proceeding with my case in in Strasbourg by:

1. Informing you of what I have done, and
2. Seeking pro bono help form barristers in order to assist with the legal implications.

I would be grateful if you would acknowledge receipt of this letter in due course and confirm that my case remains safe with you until I can come back either with information based on any pro bono help or from my own intellectual resources.

I would like to be able to communicate with you by email. Would you kindly inform me me of your email address.

Yours Faithfully,

Colin B Bennett
